SIR,

With reference to your letter No.Fl.1122 dated 12th August 1919 re the training of two Accountants of this office in Practical Banking Work, I have the honor to state that the Secretary and Treasurer, Bank of Bombay and the Eastern Bank, Bombay, were addressed with a view to know whether any of them would train two of our Graduates in Banking. The Bank of Bombay has stated in reply that it is not prepared to give training to men who are not to remain in the Bank's Service.

The Eastern Bank have asked for some particulars which have been furnished. Meanwhile, I learn that Mr. Tucker, Manager of the Eastern Bank, has gone home on leave and I shall be able to give a final reply after his return which I understand would be within the next two months.

SIR,

In continuation of my letter No.469/R dated 19-9-19 and reply to reminder No.1455/R dated 3rd March 20 in regard to the training of two Accountants of this office in banking work, I have the honour to report that Mr.Rose of the Mysore Bank who wrote to me in Feby last that he was writing again to Mr.Tucker of the Bombay ch of the Eastern Bank has gone home on furlough. I therefore to Mr.J.K.Mehta, Bombay Correspondent to the State to enquire e could conveniently undertake to arrange for the training. He so far made enquiries of the Central Bank of India and the Tata Industrial Bank, Ltd., Bombay. I send extracts of the replies received by him from these banks for the information of Government.

"The General Manager has passed on to me your letter of the 22n instant. At present time we have no vacancies for apprentic but generally speaking where apprentices are accepted it is with a view to their being trained for the benefit of the Bank and to their occupying positions on the staff after the expiration of their period of apprenticeship. If the idea o the Government of Mysore is to send graduates for training i Banking avowedly with a view to their returning to Mysore, questions arise as to the terms under which they might be trained which would necessitate consideration by my Board. If you can let me have some further information on the subjec the matter shall receive due consideration".

Reply sent by the Tata Industrial Bank Ltd

(Extract of letter dated 27-4-20) from Mr. J. K. Mehta, Commercial Correspondent.

"We cannot admit apprentices for being trained for other institutions.
So far as I remember, the Bank of Mysore is working under the patronage of H.H.the Maharaja of Mysore and as they have their Agents in Bombay -Eastern Bank- who get the benefit of their business with Bombay, perhaps they will oblige you in this matter".

The Tata Bank wishes to know the terms under which our Accountants might be trained. I believe the question which they have to consider is about the fees to be levied. The fees will of course depend upon the period of training. The period of training undergone by the apprentices whose services are utilised for the benefit of the Bank is not known. It seems sufficient if our Accountants selected for training, who will be graduates in Arts or Commerce are trained for a year within which period the bank may be requested to afford them the necessary facilities for seeing the work in all the branches. If this proposal is approved I shall inform the Bank accordingly and communicate to Government in due course their reply as to the conditions on which they would undertake to train our men. It seems desirable to leave it to the Bank to fix the fees, if any, instead of our stipulating the amount which may be accepted by the Bank or not.

Dear Mr Mehta,

re Mysore Government's request to train Graduates.

I am in receipt of your letter of yesterday's date, re the above.

I regret that I have no vacancies for further Apprentices at this office. In any case, we have no intention of training Apprentices for a year or so with the idea that they should then leave the Bank and take up work elsewhere. The whole idea of our Apprentices Scheme, is to get promising young men and to have them undergo a course of training and then to make our terms sufficiently attractive so that any Apprentice of outstanding merit has a career with the Bank.

Regretting that I can do nothing to help you in the matter.

I remain,

Secretary to the Government of Mysore,
Financial Department.

SIR,

In continuation of this office letter No.762/R dated the 3rd December 1920 re. the training of graduates in Banking Profession, I have the honour to forward herewith a copy of letter dated 2nd December 1920 received from the Manager, Bank of Mysore, Bangalore, suggesting that the candidates may be sent for training in the aforesaid Bank. I think that this may be done as no other Bank is willing to take our graduates for training. It is however desirable that they should visit some larger institutions which have exchange transactions with various banks in other parts of India and the world. I beg therefore to invite attention to my letter No.762/R dated the 3rd December 1920 and to request early orders thereon.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

T. Satyaraj Chetty
